

Counselor Conversation Card #2
September: Responsibility

Name _____

Grade _____ Date _____

Today we discussed the virtue of responsibility.

We read the poem Sarah Cynthia Sylvia Stout
Would Not Take the Garbage Out by Shel

Silverstein. We talked about how Sarah Cynthia Sylvia Stout's responsibility of taking the garbage out began to pile up higher and higher. We talked about how if we do not take care of our responsibilities, they can begin to pile up just like the garbage. After our discussion, we each came up with one way we plan on being responsible this year.

Counselor Conversation: Share with your parents your plan to be responsible. Parents, what happens to you when you do not tackle your responsibilities right away? What responsibilities does each family member have at home?
